

Sunset on your way

What's that in front of me, so beautiful, never seen.

A golden shining light, I wonder if it's real.

I see the deep red sky, that mood is coming up.

A gift of nature, when the sun is going down.

on the right side the sea*

My mind is peaceful now, I open up my heart,

I feel I'm ready and I'm waiting for the start.

It's just like flying, so I move to the top.

I'm on the climax and I wish it'd never stop
